

Mr. Powell please try to remove the last remaining barriers against concentration of media. As a mass communication major, it is very vital that totalitarian government do not dominate the media. Listen to what the public has to say, before making any rash decision.